

Exhibit 2

To Whom it May Concern,

I am writing to retract any statements made about Dr. Philip Schoenfeld in my previous written and verbal communications with you and other University of Michigan personnel and any correspondence sent to you on my behalf and at my insistence by my counsel. My claims about Dr. Schoenfeld were false and unjustified, and I now understand that they constituted defamation of character. I regret making these false statements and I apologize to Dr. Schoenfeld for the damage I caused to him and his family. I regret the difficulty and disruptions that I've caused to you and your colleagues at the University of Michigan.

The following statements that were made by me are false and defamatory:

- the University of Michigan conducted an investigation of Dr. Schoenfeld for sexual harassment and sexual misconduct;
- the University of Michigan found that Dr. Schoenfeld had committed sexual misconduct;
- the University of Michigan terminated Dr. Schoenfeld;
- the University of Michigan's termination of Dr. Schoenfeld resulted from Dr. Schoenfeld's supposed sexual misconduct;
- Dr. Schoenfeld violated University of Michigan policies in connection with me;
- Dr. Schoenfeld engaged in sex with me without my consent;
- Dr. Schoenfeld committed sexual assault as to, or raped, me;
- the University of Michigan determined that certain of Dr. Schoenfeld's conduct, as reported to the University by me, constituted sexual assault and / or sexual misconduct;
- Dr. Schoenfeld jeopardized patient care in connection with his duties at the University of Michigan;
- Dr. Schoenfeld misled Stanford University in connection with his recruitment for a Stanford faculty position, including without limitation by failing to disclose his supposed termination by the University of Michigan; and
- Dr. Schoenfeld violated the federal Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPAA") while at the University of Michigan.

The above list is not exhaustive but I wanted to correct the statements I made to University of Michigan personnel.

I understand that Dr. Schoenfeld was forced to file suit against me as a result and I have agreed to settle this matter wherein a Judgement will be entered in favor of Dr. Schoenfeld identifying my false statements. I have also requested that the Court strike these from the legal record in their entirety. Further, I understand that I face severe monetary and legal sanctions should I violate this Judgement, therefore I will not make any further comments about Dr. Schoenfeld. Thank you for your time and attention to this important matter.

Sincerely,

Constance A. Webb

Dear Ms. Seney,

I represent Philip Schoenfeld, MD, and wanted to update you about an unfortunate legal matter related to Dr. Schoenfeld and

As you may remember, [REDACTED] made multiple defamatory statements and false accusations to UM personnel about Dr. Schoenfeld. Ultimately, Dr. Schoenfeld was forced to file a defamation lawsuit against [REDACTED]. This lawsuit was recently concluded in favor of Dr. Schoenfeld and [REDACTED] was ordered to pay damages. [REDACTED] has also formally retracted those defamatory statements, and, as reflected in the attached letter, she has also formally apologized to Dr. Schoenfeld, his family, and UM personnel for her actions.

Dr. Schoenfeld and I now consider this situation to be resolved, and we wanted your office to be aware of this, too. The Court has formally prohibited [REDACTED], [REDACTED], and others acting in connection with her, from repeating or re-publishing any of the defamatory statements. Additionally, [REDACTED] has agreed, and the Court has ordered, that any violation of that injunction result in the imposition of an additional mid six-figure judgment against her. As a result of those prospective penalties, Dr. Schoenfeld and I consider a recurrence of [REDACTED] defamation to be extremely unlikely.

On behalf of Dr. Schoenfeld, I express his sincere regret for the difficulties caused by this incident. Dr. Schoenfeld and I request a reply to confirm receipt of this email. We also request confirmation that this email and the attached letter from [REDACTED] is included in any file that you created in response to [REDACTED] statements.

Respectfully,

Dear Dr. Owyang,

I represent Philip Schoenfeld, MD, and wanted to update you about an unfortunate legal matter related to Dr. Schoenfeld and

As you may remember, [REDACTED] made multiple defamatory and false statements to UM personnel about Dr. Schoenfeld. Furthermore, [REDACTED] also sent defamatory emails with multiple false accusations about Dr. Schoenfeld during his recruitment to the Division of Gastroenterology at Stanford. Ultimately, Dr. Schoenfeld was forced to file a defamation lawsuit against [REDACTED]. This lawsuit was recently concluded in favor of Dr. Schoenfeld and [REDACTED] was ordered to pay damages. [REDACTED] has also formally retracted those defamatory statements, and, as reflected in the attached letter, she has also formally apologized to Dr. Schoenfeld, his family, and UM personnel for her actions.

On behalf of Dr. Schoenfeld, I express his sincere regret for the difficulties caused by this incident. He holds you in the highest esteem and greatly appreciates your mentorship. You guided his contributions to UM's Division of Gastroenterology, including the creation of the T32 Training Program in GI Epidemiology and the development of the cadre of GI health services researchers at the Ann Arbor VA HCS. He remains quite proud of that work and has often expressed that his academic accomplishments are a direct result of your leadership and support, and he deeply values his personal friendship with you.
